B. Swing Judge of the Probate Court in and for Clermont County Ohio
on the Ninth (9th) day of November A. D. 1882

It is remembered that on the 7th day of November A. D. 1882, the following Entry was caused to be made upon the Journals of said Court.

Entry Docket;

In the Matter of the Estate }
of Sarah Osborn deceased. }

This day came Zebulon Dickinson and presented an instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah Osborn deceased and made application to admit the same to probate, and it is ordered that said Will be filed and said Application set for hearing before this Court on the 9th day of November A. D. 1882 at 10 O'clock A. M. and that Adaline Osborn, Matilda Brunk, Margaret Daugherty, Rachel Moon, George Osborn, Martha Ann Burroughs and Benjamin Osborn, next of kin of the Testatrix residing in the State of Ohio, be duly notified thereof.

Afterward, on the 9th day of November A. D. 1882, the following Entry was caused to be made upon the Journals of said Court

Entry To-wit;

In the Matter of the Estate }
of Sarah Osborn deceased }

The last Will and Testament of Sarah Osborn deceased, having been filed and an Application made for probate thereof, and it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court that due notice of the filing of said Will and of the Application to admit the same to probate and record has been given to Adaline Osborn, Matilda Brunk, Margaret Daugherty, Rachel Moon, George Osborn, Martha Ann Burroughs and Benjamin Osborn, all of the next of kin of said Sarah Osborn deceased, residing in the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of this Court—thereupon this day the subscribing witnesses to said Will, to-wit; Annes Shriver and Cyrus L. Shumard appeared in open Court and on oath testified to the due execution of said Will, which testimony was reduced to writing and by them respectively subscribed and filed with said Will; and it appearing to the Court by said testimony that the said Will was duly attested and executed, and that the Testatrix was at the time of executing said Will, of legal age and of sound and disposing mind and memory and not under any restraint, it is ordered by the Court that said Will and testimony be recorded.

Whereupon Zebulon Dickinson, the Executor in said Will named, appeared in open Court and accepted the trust imposed in him as Executor of said Will. It is therefore ordered that Letters Testamentary be issued to said Zebulon Dickinson upon his giving bond in the penal sum of Five thousand dollars with sureties to be approved by the Court, conditioned according to law, and thereupon said Zebulon Dickinson executed and filed his bond as required by the Court, with John White, E. D. Duckwall and Frank White as sureties, which bond is approved, and it is ordered that it be recorded. And the Court appoint Harvey A. Biggame, Lucious Griswold and Joseph Hall Appraisers of the personal estate of decedent.
